Finders will research any case referred to them free of charge. If we identify and locate next of kin we may ask them to sign a commission fee agreement which enables us to be paid from the net share due to each her on final distribution of the Estate. There is no fee to anyone if the claim is unsuccessful for any reason. If all entitled classes of next of kin have died out the case may then be forwarded to the relevant government department for administration. All details held in confidence in accordance with our Data Protection Registration &amp; ISO certification.
